3. Code of Conduct

A. Use of Sidereal Astrology Only

Members must use fixed-star placements exclusively and refrain from using tropical astrology in their professional practice, except in cases where a clear and explicit contrast is being made to demonstrate the inaccuracies of tropical astrology.

B. Ethical Business Practices

Members must engage in fair and honest client interactions, avoid fear-based predictions, and maintain confidentiality in client consultations.

C. Transparency & Integrity

Members must clearly disclose fees, uphold truthful advertising, and refrain from misleading claims regarding astrology.

D. Professional Representation

Members using the ISAA Professional Seal must do so in accordance with ISAA guidelines.

Professional members are encouraged to offer discounts or support to students and other ISAA members at their discretion.

Violations of ethical standards may lead to membership revocation, with no refunds issued.

4. Acknowledgement & Agreement

By signing up as a Professional Member, I agree to uphold the ISAA Member Code of Ethics, acknowledge that membership benefits and discounts are subject to change upon renewal, and understand that ISAA reserves the right to revoke membership if ethical violations occur.
